EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Johnson's Last Night

NASHVILLE, July 31—Latest intelligence from Greeneville, 9 o'clock last night says ex-President Johnson was somewhat better. He talks unintelligibly. Some hopes of recovery.

Andrew Johnson Dead.

NASHVILLE, July 31—The following dispatch addressed to the agent of the associated press is just received:

KNOXVILLE, July 31—Senator Johnson died at 2:30 this afternoon. (Signed) DUNCAN.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug 1—The death of Andrew Johnson at 2:30 this morning is now confirmed. He desired that his winding sheet be the flag of his country.

WASHINGTON, July 31—Secretary Fish, now in New York, has been informed of the death of ex-President Johnson. It is customary on the decease of an ex-president to issue an executive order announcing the event and directing the departments to be draped in mourning, and that during the funeral all public business be suspended.

Flags at Half-Mast Out of Respect for Johnson.

WASHINGTON, Aug 1—As a mark of respect to ex-President Johnson, the flag was at half mast from the staff over the music stand of the executive mansion, and from various public buildings in the city.

NEW YORK, Aug 1—Soon after the announcement to-day of the death of ex-President Johnson flags were placed at half mast over the city hall.

Executive Order on the Death of Ex-President Johnson.

WASHINGTON, August 1—The following executive order has been issued:

WASHINGTON, July 31, 1875.

It becomes the painful duty of the president to announce to the people of the United States the death of Andrew Johnson, the last survivor of his honored predecessors, which occurred in Carter county, East Tennessee, at an early hour this morning. The solemnity of the occasion which called him to the presidency, with the varied nature and length of his public service, will cause him to be long remembered and occasion mourning for the death of a distinguished public servant. As a mark of respect for the memory of the deceased it is ordered that the executive mansion and the several departments of the government at Washington be draped in mourning until the close of the day designated for the funeral, and all public business be suspended on that day. It is further ordered that the war and navy departments cause suitable honors to be paid on that occasion to the memory of the illustrious dead.

By the President. U S GRANT.
JOHN L. CADWALLADER, Acting Sec'y of State.

The Tweed Civil Suit.

NEW YORK, July 31—Judge Barrett to-day refused to vacate an order of arrest in the six million suit against Tweed or to reduce his bail.

A Man Kills his Wife and Himself.

AFTON, Iowa, July 31—Thursday forenoon Alfred Van Sickle, a young farmer living in this county, while bringing a load of produce to town shot and killed his wife, who was accompanying him, and then shot himself. The wife died instantly, but Van Sickle was alive at last accounts, though death was inevitable. No cause assigned for the deed.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, July 31—Loans increased $1,[illegible]8,500; specie increased $1,362,200; legal tenders increased $[illegible],300; deposits decreased $1,060,500; circulation decreased $25,000; reserve shows a loss of $977,[illegible]5.

Telegraph Stock Speculations.

The Tribune says a member of the executive committee of the Western Union Company, as well as interested with Commodore Vanderbilt, was questioned as to the truth of the report that Vanderbilt was ready to sell out his stock. He says Vanderbilt is pretty willing to part with any speculative stock, and is such with the Western Union, but he is intensely stubborn. The stock he holds cost him 66, and he never will sell at a loss. If it can be got up to 90 the commodore will sell out to Jay Gould or any one who will give his price, but the retirement of Vanderbilt from business would not necessarily involve the retirement of his friends. Vanderbilt has a large number of followers in all [illegible] which he enters, and the board—Messrs. A. B. Babcock, Barker, Durkee and Throne—are all looked upon as his friends, all have been identified with the management of the company. The Tribune does not believe they would sell out their stock even if Vanderbilt should. There is $35,000,000 Western Union stock in all; the commodore holds five millions and his friends eleven millions more, making sixteen millions, enough to control the board at all its elections. If Gould desires the control he will have to buy Vanderbilt's clique as well as the commodore. He to-day owns more Western Union stock than does Vanderbilt. It is well known in our board that Jay Gould owns $7,500,000 of Western Union stock against $5,000,000 held by the commodore. Should he buy out the interest of Vanderbilt, which the latter is quite willing to sell the moment the stock rises above 86, Gould with his $7,500,000 will be very near to controlling the board. He will have to purchase it all himself, however, for he cannot rely upon friends. He has no such followers as has the commodore, but he makes up in cash what he lacks in support.

Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s Deposits

It is rumored on Wall street that deposits in Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s amount to $[illegible],000,000.

Mr. Beecher's Salary.

NEW YORK, July 31—The Sun says August Storrs, treasurer of Plymouth Church, has paid to H. W. Beecher $30,000 as the first installment of his hundred thousand dollar salary. Two secret meetings of the board of trustees have been held in the past three weeks, and there has been much difference of opinion, bordering almost on dissension, as to how the remaining $50,000 shall be raised. The amount paid to Beecher was the surplus of pew rents rented at the sales in January, and covers his year at twenty thousand.

The Times says it is somewhat authoritatively stated that officials of Plymouth Church intend to raise $50,000 additional to be voted to Beecher by a mortgage on Bethel.

Bessie is to be Paid for her Testimony.

NEW YORK, July 31—A fund is now being raised by members of Plymouth Church for the benefit of Bessie Turner.

Another Mess to be Buried.

NEW YORK, July 31—The extended time for the defendants to answer in the suit for libel brought by Edna Dean Proctor against the New York Graphic expires to-day. In all likelihood it will be compromised.

Not Involved in Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s Failure.

NEW YORK, July 31—Letters are received from John T. Raymond, John Brougham and Wm. Wheatley denying that they are losers by Duncan, Sherman & Co.

Another Failure.

NEW YORK, July 31—Schwab & Fro[illegible], proprietors of an extensive lager beer brewery at Marion, N. J., have failed for about $[illegible]0,000.

A Musical Contest.

Fire in Long Island City.

NEW YORK, Aug 1—A fire last night destroyed L. D. Hibbard's lard oil factory in Long Island City. Loss $75,000.

Great Damage to Crops.

CHICAGO, Aug 1—Reports from numerous points in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois state the frequent and heavy rains that have visited the northwest during the past week have done great injury to the growing crops, and in some sections whole farms are flooded. Wheat has suffered greatly, and it is feared this crop will be almost a failure in some localities. On low lands along the rivers water is standing so deep as to prohibit harvesting or cultivation. Crops on high or rolling ground are in better condition, but the average will probably be low even there.

Four Young Men Drowned—Their Bodies Recovered.

CINCINNATI, August 1—The bodies of four young men drowned last Thursday night near Huntington were recovered to-day.

Streams Full of Floating Wheat.

Special to the Commercial give accounts of heavy rains during the twenty four hours past in Indiana and Illinois, and further damage to crops. Danville, Illinois, reports all the bottom lands along the Vermillion overflowed, and that the streams were full of floating wheat. Great damage has been done to railroads by the floods. Trowsville, Indiana, reports the most damaging rain of the season. The streams flood the country. Several hundred feet of the Indianapolis and Lafayette railroad are washed out. On the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad the culverts and track are gone in several places north and south. The Green Castle, Indianapolis and St. Louis railroad is also washed out east and west of Green Castle. The Vandalia road also lost a bridge over West White creek, near Cartersburg, Indiana. The Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western railroad is washed out near Crawfordsville. It is thought trains will not get through before Tuesday. The Commercial's Somerset, Ohio, special reports a terrific hail storm this afternoon. The stones were the size of a large hickory nut, with heavy rain. Considerable damage was done to Hocking Valley Railroad. The Enquirer's special from Circleville, Ohio, reports Scioto river very high and still rising. The bottom lands are all under water, and considerable damage has been done. A special from Urbana, Ohio, says creeks are swollen to rivers and all flat land are inundated. Rain is still falling and streams rising. Wheat is already destroyed by rain, and the army worm is cutting wheat and oats. A special from Lima, Ohio, reports serious damage to crops in that vicinity from rain and the army worm. Corn is badly beaten down by the water.

Damage to Crops in Missouri.

ST LOUIS, Aug 1—Dispatches from various parts of the State report immense damage to crops in Spring river bottom. Farmers are damaged a million and a half dollars. The streams at St Louis are flooded, causing great damage and destruction. Railroads are greatly damaged and trains greatly delayed.

The Lord Mayor's Banquet.

LONDON, July 30—The grand ball by the lord mayor of London to the mayors and other civic dignitaries from abroad took place to-night at guildhall, and was a magnificent affair. Nearly 3,000 persons were present, including all the distinguished guests at the banquet yesterday. No member of the British ministry attended.

Report of the Court of Inquiry on the Loss of the Vicksburg.

LONDON, July 30—The report made by the board of trade court of inquiry appointed to investigate the loss of the steamer Vicksburg of the Dominion line is published. The court's opinion is that if, when ice was reported at night on both bows, the master of the Vicksburg had hove to until daylight in accordance with the company's instructions, the catastrophe would in all probability have been averted. The evidence shows neglect of practice in manning the boats. Had they been carried out the boats would have been lowered earlier. The court strongly believes every life would have been saved. Further delay is attributed to the natural reluctance of the captain to abandon his vessel while the hope of saving her remained.

Rochefort Challenges de Cassagnac, but the Conditions of the Duel Cannot be Agreed Upon.

The Times reports that Henri Rochefort on the 10th sent Paul de Cassagnac a challenge telling him to come to Geneva at once with seconds. The cause of the challenge was an article appearing in Le Pays in [illegible]. M. de Cassagnac replied with an exceedingly abusive letter, giving Rochefort the choice of weapons, and appointing Prince Alexandre de Wagram and Count Harrison his seconds. MM. [illegible] having consented to act as Rochefort's seconds, have met those of Cassagnac in turn to arrange the duel, and claim that as their principal is the insulted party he has not only the choice of weapons but the right to determine the distance, and then demanded that the men meet with pistols at five paces, to shoot at the word of command. M. de Cassagnac's seconds said this was simply murder, for when the arms of the combatants were extended the muzzles of their weapons [illegible]. [illegible] considering the importance of the case had been very particular about the conditions. His friends [illegible] the distance be 30 paces, each combatant to be allowed to advance five steps after the word is given, the time of firing to [illegible] option. [illegible] Rochefort's seconds declined this, and the matter rests there.

The Daily News has a dispatch stating that a minute has been drawn up, signed by the seconds of both parties, declaring it impossible to settle the conditions of the duel.

Immense Fenian Amnesty Meeting.

LONDON, Aug 1—An immense meeting in favor of amnesty for Fenian convicts was held in Hyde Park to-day. It is estimated that a hundred thousand persons were present about the speakers' stand. John O'Connor Power, a member of parliament, presided, and in his speech declared the Fenian prisoners entitled to approbation rather than censure. Biggar, member for Cavan county, and Messrs. [illegible] and Mellon were also present. Resolutions of the usual character were carried by acclamation.

Insurrection Not Suppressed in Herzegovina.

BELGRADE, August 1—The Prince of Milan has gone to Vienna to confer with the foreign office in regard to the situation in Herzegovina. The Servians have opened subscriptions in aid of the insurrection, and much excitement prevails in the principality.

VIENNA, August 1—Count Andrassy, Austrian premier, who was on leave of absence, has returned to Vienna on account of the Herzegovinian complication. The Presse says it has reason to believe the Prince of Milan's object in coming to this city is to sound the government and ascertain whether Austria intends to preserve neutrality, or even if the insurrection is protracted, whether he will recommend the Porte to redress the evils which have caused present disturbances; finally, whether she is inclined to support the demands Servia contemplates respecting the government and independence of Servia. The Presse concludes: If Austria's reply is not altogether in the negative it will be because Turkey is at fault for showing lack of energy at the commencement of the Herzegovina insurrection.

Grain Ship Arrived.

LONDON, July 31—Arrived at Liverpool—Ship [illegible], San Francisco.

Cause of Mr Richards' Death.

LONDON, Aug 1—Mr Richards, of Charleston, West Virginia, whose death at Edinburgh was reported yesterday, died from the effects of a fall in a railway depot, by which he fractured his skull.

The O'Connell Centenary.

LONDON, Aug 1—The O'Connell centenary demonstration is assuming an unexpected political and diplomatic significance, embarrassing to liberals, home rulers and government. The Lord Mayor of Dublin, it is supposed at the instigation of [illegible] Cardinal Cullen, a pure churchman caring nothing for the memory of O'Connell, has given the affair an ultramontane character, offensive alike to Irish and English liberal Protestant noblemen, home rulers and Fenians. Invitations were mainly extended to Catholic laymen and bishops of England, France and Germany, which has drawn an indignant protest from one of the Irish peers, who claim the lord mayor is unauthorized to use his office for purely Catholic purposes. Cardinal Cullen is known to be an enemy of home rule, and hopes thus to divide and destroy that party. The home rulers and Fenians will probably have independent celebrations in honor of the liberation. They cannot co-operate in an ultramontane movement without endangering the liberal alliance and alienating Protestants who are home rulers. Men like Butt, Sullivan and MacCarthy Downing deplore the character given to the affair, and fear they will in consequence lose the support of the English Liberals and Irish Protestants in Dublin. The lord mayor is considered impolitic in resolving to propose the pope's health before that of the queen. Englishmen generally would co-operate in a proper demonstration, but they will not stand ultramontanism or the insult to the queen. Sir Henry James, Sir William Harcourt and other advanced liberals sorrowfully oppose the demonstration as admirers of O'Connell. They don't want to identify themselves with an anti-Bismarck demonstration, because if the lord mayor shows sympathy with the imprudent bishops it would give Bismarck a chance to oppose the movement as hostile to German unity.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31—The steamship Belgic, the second vessel of the Occidental and Oriental line to China and Japan, arrived this evening with dates from China to the 1st and from Japan to the 12th inst.

A fire at Hong Kong on the night of June 22d destroyed the premises of the well known firm of Russell & Co. and much other foreign property.

On June 12th the English steamer Cambrook from Singapore was detected landing a cargo on the island of Hainan. The steamer was seized by order of the Chinese authorities on a charge of smuggling, Hainan being closed to foreigners. The captain of the Cambrook attempted to run off, and his ship was fired upon and disabled. There is much excitement among English residents. The matter has been referred to the Pekin government.

Assaults are reported on attaches of the British and Russian embassies by mobs at Pekin.

The American bark James Cutler was wrecked on the island of Cambodia, March 30th. The crew were well treated by the natives and rescued by the Italian ship of war Vittor Pisani.

The Seattle Tribune says: "The Webfoot country (Oregon) is almost daily invading Puget Sound with scores of her citizens. A large number of the arrivals here, it will be observed by our hotel registers, hail from that region, and the number is steadily augmenting."

A whale of the fin back species was killed on the spit at Port Angeles last week. He was being pursued by killers, and in his confusion ran up high and dry on the beach, when Mr Dunn, who had witnessed the scene, extemporized a lance by tying his knife to the end of a pole, with which he pierced him so effectually that after a few minutes struggle he died. He is represented to have been nearly 100 feet in length.

A dispatch from San Juan Island, W. T., in a Victoria paper, says a large canoe was discovered the other day near the English camp on that island. An Indian on being asked said they were Fort Simpson Indians and had left Victoria sick with small pox. They were unable to get any further with their canoe. He stated that ten of his friends were dead in the bush near him, he being the only one of the crew living, and he was unable to help himself. Food was furnished to him by the settlers. It is said the bodies are in such a condition that it is impossible to remove them or to do anything about them at present.

Loss of the Clara R. Sutil—Sufferings of the Crew.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31—The schooner Skylark arrived this morning and brings particulars of the loss of the bark Clara R. Sutil, Capt. Geo. Cobb, which left this port for Coos bay. She had on the [illegible] of July about noon very heavy seas, and was struck by a cross sea under her quarter, which started the stern post and caused the vessel to leak. The pumps were kept constantly going, but the captain finding the water gaining all the time made ready to leave the vessel. At 8 P. M. there were five feet of water in the hold and the vessel unmanageable, when she went over on her side. The crew got a boat ready with some small stores. In lowering the boat she was capsized and everything lost out of her. The boat was got alongside again, and all hands got into her without oars, water or provisions. About twenty minutes after the ship turned over and sank. All remained in the boat four days and nights without anything to eat or drink, wet through all the time, and no compass. On the 20th all hands were taken on board the Skylark and brought to this port.

About the Consolidation of Telegraph Companies.

Referring to a rumor of a consolidation of the Atlantic and Pacific telegraph company with the Western Union, by the absorption of the former by the latter, it is said the contract, if concluded, will not include the lines of the so called Atlantic and Pacific company west of Ogden, which are the property of the Central Pacific.

Miller's Defalcation.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1—Experts engaged in unearthing the frauds of Woodruff alias Miller report the total defalcation about $1,[illegible]00,000. Of this $800,000 has been made good. The general impression is that Miller will escape legal investigation.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Colonist says Judge Gray will proceed to Cassiar next week to hold the assizes.

About $64,000 in treasure was shipped on the [illegible] from Victoria for San Francisco last week.

The Nanaimo Free Press says at least $100,000 worth of property has been placed in serious jeopardy during the past week by bush fires.

The Vasco de Gama, from Victoria for Departure Bay July 28th, will take in a full cargo of coal and sail from [illegible] for San Francisco on the 2d of August.

The bark [illegible], which arrived the other day from Japan, has been chartered to load lumber at Moody & Nelson's mills for Iquique, Peru, whence she will take a cargo of nitre for England.

Three cases of small pox among the Indians at Nanaimo have occurred—one fatal. All precautions have been taken by the city council and Indian Commissioner Lenihan to prevent the spread of the disease.

A dispatch from Yale dated July 27th says: The road is still blocked at Nicaragua Bluff. No teams have left Yale for nearly a week. Above Clinton the road is scarcely travelable. Freights to Soda Creek were advanced to six cents a pound yesterday—a rise of $30 per ton—and will go higher. The government is bitterly denounced by all its former friends.

Concerning steamship movements the Colonist says the next steamship to leave San Francisco is the Salvador, an iron screw propeller of 1100 tons. She will be followed by a side wheel steamship, probably the Arizona, [illegible]00 tons, and the trip following that will be made by the Vasco de Gama. The Vancouver, sister ship to the [illegible], will be docked before making a trip.

A current of terribly hot air passed over Centralia, Ill., recently, which drove workmen from the fields, and people rushed from their houses supposing they were on fire.

Mountain Meadows Massacre

BEAVER, July 31—Farnsworth resumed for the defense. Was nine years a bishop. Know how the church disciplines its members.

Question—Would a bishop in 1857 dare to commit murder? Ruled incompetent.

Q—How does the church discipline its members for disobedience?

The prosecution objected, alleging that the laws of the church contain the doctrine of the blood of the atonement; that examining into that matter would open the door in rebuttal to establish acts of the church in the murder of the Parrish family, the murder of Gunnison, the killing of Robinson, the cutting of the throat of negro Tom, cutting the throat of Potts at Coalville and the murder of Yates.

The court ruled out the question, holding that the written records and laws of the church are the best evidence.

Q—What was the relative strength of the whites and Indians in southern Utah in 1856?

Ruled irrelevant. Duress cannot justify homicide.

Cross examination—About a year ago had a conversation with George A. Smith, and he for the first time said he had no knowledge of the Arkansas emigrants being in the territory until the day he and I met them at Corn creek. Didn't swear yesterday that Smith told me so at the time we met them.

The reporters' notes were referred to, and show he said Smith told him so, but gave no date.

Saw a man with Indians near the dead ox, at Corn creek, when we left the emigrants there. Saw no buckskins there. Think the man was an emigrant. Can't say how long I saw him. Can't say if it was a second.

Counsel asked the court to commit the witness for contempt for trifling.

Can't say how long I looked at him. When I saw them the emigrant train was in the corral.

Decided sensation in court as witness Hoops swore it was after camp was broken and the Dutch doctor lingered behind at the ox as the train moved off. Also that the ox was inside the corral and not seen till the camp was broken.

Witness drew a diagram showing the position of the ox and the emigrant camp, locating the ox twenty rods from the emigrant camp. Witness saw no dead ox in their corral; heard nothing of a Dutch doctor there. Heard nothing about the cholera there. It is customary among Indians to avenge a wrong by one of a white party on the first or any other white party they might meet. There are many tribes in the Territory, but all speak the same tongue, with dialects. Not less than 10,000 Indians in the Territory in 1857. The Territory was then larger than now. Among the Mormons the same rule of vengeance does not prevail. No people holds man to a more strict accountability than Mormons. No people more strict in punishing for violation of law. They do not believe in shedding blood. Do not kill for adultery.

John Hamilton.

Sworn—In 1857 lived six miles south of Cedar, in Fort Hamilton. Heard of the massacre. After it saw the Indians come by that place. They had the bloody clothes of women, household goods, saddles and stock. They shot some of the stock there. I was afraid. They were hostile and in war paint. They committed no outrage on me or my neighbors. The Indians were peaceable with us as long as we fed them or gave them work.

John Hamilton, Jr.

Sworn—In 1857 lived six miles south of Cedar, in Fort Hamilton. Saw the emigrants at Shirts Creek. They came by there to get a cow there which a man in Parowan had traded them for a lame cow. They again traded the Parowan cow to my brother for a steer. There was much excitement in the country then. Recess.

After recess witness resumed: At our place, after the massacre, saw Indians with goods and stock of the emigrants, also men's and women's clothing, with blood on it; piles of it; two of the Indians were wounded.

Richard Robinson.

Sworn—Lived at Pinto creek in 1857; only six able-bodied men lived there; two were absent when the emigrants went by. I was an elder there. Do not remember Klingen Smith bringing me a letter from Haight about the approach of the emigrants; saw an open letter at Pinto from Haight to Lee before the massacre; don't know its date [proof of its contents was offered to be proven by the witness]; it was after the emigrants passed; I am now a bishop; think Amos Thornton delivered the letter to Lee; he is dead.

The defense stated that all their testimony yet to be given would not occupy more than an hour; that the evidence was not now to be had, but would be here to-night with Brigham Young's affidavit. They therefore moved an adjournment until Monday.

The court granted the motion and directed counsel concerning the preparation and settlement of instructions for the jury.

It was announced that the court would charge the jury before argument by counsel would be allowed.

Adjourned till Monday.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES

The Seattle postoffice was robbed last Wednesday night of $5 coin and $35 in postage stamps.

The eldest son of O. T. Elliott, of Baker City, died a few days ago in that place from injuries received by falling off a horse.

Herman Berg, the gentleman who was scalded some time ago in a tank of lager beer, died on Tuesday night. He suffered intensely, but the poor fellow bore it nobly. He was a German by birth, and has no relatives in this country.

On the 25th inst. Mr John Sawyer, living up on the South Yamhill, was kicked in the face by a horse and was shockingly lacerated and bruised, barely escaping the loss of his left eye. He was currying the horse at the time. Strange to say no bones were broken or fractured.

The two prisoners who escaped from the Linn county jail a short time since, it is supposed, were seen in the forks of the Santiam recently. Parties gave chase, but the two men escaped into the brush, and as the pursuit was not followed up very persistently they escaped.

L. C. Burkhart of Linn county some weeks ago sprained his right wrist in attempting to catch something when falling. He thought nothing of the matter at the time, but it has been getting worse and worse from that time to this, and now he has almost lost the use of his right arm.

A young man aged about 16 years, who has been working for Charles Denton on Mill creek, Wasco county, left a few days ago, taking with him a horse belonging to Mr Denton. Charles Schutz, deputy sheriff, went after the young man and overhauled him somewhere on the Ochoco road, brought him back and lodged him in jail.

Mr. F. I. Campbell and lady, a day or two since, while riding from Monmouth (their home) to Independence, met with an accident whereby both were badly bruised, but fortunately not injured. The wind was blowing, and was about to take Mr C.'s hat off, when he suddenly dropped the lines to secure it. The reins got out of his reach, and the horses started on a run, throwing both Mr and Mrs C. out and breaking the buggy up badly.

James Butler, who resides near Junction, and is well known, was hurt considerably by being thrown from a wagon against the sidewalk in Junction City, last week. He was driving at a mad cap rate, and showing his dexterity with the strings by turning corners at a 2:40 pace, and in doing so was hurled from his seat, cutting quite a gash in his forehead over the right eye, and crushing his breast, placing him in a precarious condition, from which he may not recover.

The Humboldt Mill and Mining Company's property at Winnemucca was attached on the 19th inst.

OREGON

The snag puller left Albany for the mouth of the Santiam on Friday of last week.

The Odd Fellows hall at Jacksonville is being renovated and made better than now.

An Indian chief was weighed at the Dalles the other day, and brought down the beam at 330.

Jacksonville will hold a special election August 11th to fill a vacancy in her town board.

Alfred Jeanes of Molalla, Clackamas county, wants information concerning his brother James Jeanes.

The Mountaineer says a chief of the Cascade tribe of Indians sentenced one of his subjects to be hanged last week for stealing blankets.

D. B. Cartwright, an old and worthy citizen of Lane county, departed this life at the residence of Dr. Nicklin, in Eugene, on the 29th ult. His remains were taken to Salem for interment.

Messrs Devlin & Wygant have purchased a tract of water front at Astoria, and will soon begin the construction thereon of a dock and buildings suitable for carrying on an extensive fish canning business next season.

The Corvallis papers teem with items about the summer resorts in Benton county, who is away, what they are doing, etc. Truly these breathing spots are worth having, as they afford country editors at least something to talk about.

The Statesman learns that smallpox is in the family of Mr Maybell, who lives about fifteen miles southeast of Oregon City. Mrs Maybell is slowly convalescing and her son is now down with it. Great care is taken to prevent the spread of the disease by those having the care of the patients.

Lafayette Lodge, No 34, I. O. G. T., elected the following officers for the quarter commencing August 3d: Geo. P. Dorriss, W. C. T.; Mrs. C. E. Watts, W. V. T.; J. J. Hembree, S.; C. Watts, F. S.; J. T. Hembree, T.; N. B. Martin, C.; John Haney, M.; Cora Royal, I. G.; Heber Martin, O. G.

The voters of Lane county, friendly to the cause of temperance, are requested to meet in mass convention at the courthouse in Eugene City, Saturday, August 7th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of electing six delegates to attend the State temperance convention, to be held at Salem on Friday, August 13th.

Says the Corvallis Democrat: During the fore part of last week Mr Cooper, chief engineer of the Yaquina bay railroad, resurveyed and relocated the town site of Newport. This is a great benefit to the town, and parties wishing to build can now do so without fear of being compelled to remove their buildings hereafter.

Says the Herald: "The snow which has hung with such grim tenacity for the past six months to the tops of the Powder River mountains, to the southwest of Baker City, has grown beautifully less during the past week of hotness. Ere long not a vestige of winter's mantle can be seen in any direction from Baker City. Very little snow is in sight now."

At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Dalles City, held at the court house on Saturday evening, July 24th, 1875, to devise means to defend the title of their homes against the claim of the Methodist mission, a committee was appointed to represent and act for the people in defending the title to their property, and all necessary expenses incurred are to be borne by the persons interested, pro rata, according to the value of the property owned by each.

A company propose wingdaming Rogue river near the residence of Joseph Dauden, and another project is also on foot to wingdam the river a distance above the bar of the same, for the purpose of mining its bed. Several streams by which much mining has been done in former days are continually flowing into Rogue river, and there undoubtedly are good paying diggings in some portions of the bed. Chinese have for some time been mining it in places, and no doubt make it pay.

"We learn," says the Farmer, "from Dr. McCauley, at Stayton, that on last Friday week a child was born across the river from there, in Linn county, horribly deformed. Its mother was frightened by her own father, during pregnancy, he putting on a false face or mask, and suddenly appearing before her. The child has a distorted face, no nose or upper lip, and only small holes where the mouth and eyes should be. The mother was dreadfully affected on beholding her offspring going into spasms frequently."

On the 24th inst., Sheridan Lodge, No 64, F. & A. M., was constituted and consecrated in the rites of the Masonic Order, at Sheridan. There was a large attendance and the exercises were very much enjoyed. The speech of P. G. M. Chadwick is spoken of as one of the ablest and finest productions. The officers installed by Grand Senior Warden R. Clow, of Dallas, are: C. G. Rowell, W. M.; P. M. Scroggins, S. W.; H. W. Lamson, J. W.; J. B. Morris, Treas.; H. B. Sommerville, Sec.; A. L. Saylor, S. D.; Robert Dyer, J. D.; H. H. Graves, S. T.; J. K. Connor, J. T.; Bush, Tyler.

The Astorian says: "A mirage in the bay below Astoria, looking toward Cape Hancock from the city docks, last Tuesday, was mistaken for a vessel aground, and from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M. various speculations were rife as to what the craft could be. Some pronounced it the Hera, others the Melancthon, due from San Francisco, others still protested that it was a ship, while some were making bets that it was the schooner Superior. Finally it was decided that it was the steamer Varuna, which had left in the morning early with a large party of excursionists to the cape, and her protracted stay was taken as an evidence that she was in trouble, and a sloop was dispatched to the rescue of the passengers, when she was met coming up, and the truth was revealed that the scare was a myth, with nothing more than a snag for a basis."

MINING ITEMS

Mr. E. C. McEwen, of Yakima City, reports new gold quartz mines as having been discovered about four miles above the Swauk creek mines. The prospects are said to be very favorable for rich and extensive mines.

Of mining matters in Eastern Oregon, the Baker City Democrat says: "The discovery shaft on the Morning Glory ledge is down, we learn, about 44 feet, and the owners of the mine have contracted with parties to sink 68 feet deeper within 90 days. The vein is 45 inches in width and all contains mineral—gold and silver bearing. The formation is very similar to that of the far famed Comstock of Nevada, carrying black sulphurets and stephanite. The news from Granite creek district is cheering. The Phil Sheridan, a very rich gold and silver bearing ledge, has been relocated, and work will be commenced on it immediately. Worcester is doing work on his ledge and running an arastra on good gold rock. Thomas McDonald is now over there, and expresses a very favorable opinion in relation to the Morning Glory mine, and is favorably impressed with the whole country as being rich in minerals."

FIRES

The residence of Sidney Blackerly on Fifteen Mile creek, Wasco county, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, last week. The fire originated from the kitchen stovepipe where it passed through the roof. The house was a good frame building. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $1,000.

The Eugene Journal says: "The days of smoke have arrived. There is seldom a season passes away but from the wantonness or negligence of parties traveling in the mountains fires are allowed to spread and destroy large amounts of valuable timber. Fires are raging now, we understand, on the McKenzie, and are liable to do much damage to the travel over this route. Attention should be taken in this matter by parties interested, and every effort put forth to stop this by prosecuting those guilty of this wanton destruction of what will, at some day, be of great value."

FARMING ITEMS.

Some new wheat has been received at Eugene and sold at 90 cents per bushel.

Farmers in various portions of the territory are thrashing wheat. The yield is excellent.

Hon Daniel Clark, master of the Oregon State grange, will meet the granges on Puget Sound this week.

Bear or cougar killed seven fine merino sheep for John Minto on the north fork of Santiam last week.

The hay crop in Chehalis county is first-rate this year, and all other crops are doing well. It cannot be expected to be otherwise, as the soil in that valley is of the best quality and the farmers are industrious.

Col M. C. Nye has sold his sheep ranch of 2,480 acres, situated on Five and Eight Mile creeks, Wasco county, to D. F. Thompson of Napa City, California, for the sum of $10,000, cash, who has taken possession.

George Hill, of Deep river, Clatsop county, informs us that the crops of that region have been well secured, but in spots the grub and army worms were very numerous, and did considerable damage to one of his fields.

Wages of hands in the harvest field in Jackson county have been reduced from $2 a day and board, the price paid last year, to $1.50 and board. This reduction has caused considerable dissatisfaction among the laborers.

The Albany Register says Mr L. C. Burkhart, who runs a grange warehouse, held his wheat over, refusing to sell at last fall's rates. The other day he sold, receiving 95c per bushel for his wheat just as it came from the warehouse.

L. D. Durgin, of Puyallup valley, says the hop crops never looked better than now. The cut-worms did a little damage to young hops, but did not molest the old ones. The prospect for excellent crops of all kinds in the valley is very flattering.

Mr John Labour, of Young's river, Clatsop county, who is an Oregonian of recent origin, is delighted with the prospects he sees before him in this new country. He says such crops as are raised here would do the soul of an Iowa man good.

Sam McCollum, the "bear hunter," long known to the people of Lane county, has gone east of the mountains with a band of cattle and sheep. Civilization is crowding Sam too much—the bear and deer are gone and he must follow them.

Says the Independent: Ben Cornelius owns 1,000 acres of land on Deer Island, in the Columbia river, and proposes to bring his stock from Eastern Oregon and put them on it. He and Wm Watson talk of buying the whole island, which contains 3,000 or 4,000 acres, and making a big stock farm of it.

The farmers of Thurston and neighboring counties are requested to meet in Olympia on the third Saturday in August, to compare notes in regard to the hay crop, and to fix a uniform market value for the same. It is believed that the crop is fully one third short this year, while its consumption is constantly increasing.

The farmers of Lane county have commenced cutting the early sowed grain, and from present prospects the crops will yield as much as was anticipated. The early sowed grain is well filled, the grain being full and plump. Grain that was put in early, or that put in with cultivators or drills, is from 25 to 50 per cent. better than late grain, or that sowed broadcast and covered with harrows.

Prof. G. J. McCraw has shown the Statesman some specimens of wheat raised by Mr Andrew Stout on the fern hills of Clackamas county, 14 miles southeast of Oregon City. It has been generally supposed that this land was worthless as a grain-producing region, but Mr Stout's first crop on this land will average 25 bushels to the acre, while some land which he has had under cultivation for 20 years produces 35 bushels per acre.

The Salem Statesman says: "The hay harvest has about ended here, and the cutting of fall grain fully inaugurated. There is a full force of the very best of hands to run all the harvest machines. The plumpness of the wheat is a marvel to strangers. Ten heads of average fall wheat yielded, a few days ago, from one grain of seed sown last fall on Howell Prairie, 640 grains. Such a crop of fall wheat has never been known before, but the late sown grain and oat crop will be considerably below an average crop."

BEWARE OF THEM.—Women should not wear striped stockings, as they value their precious legs, as the aniline dyes used in producing certain colors are poisonous, and cause the worst kind of malignant sores—and of all nuisances sore legs must be the worst and most destructive of beauty. Strength, grace and good looks are walked away on such legs. A great American genius, the late Mr Hawthorne, has said that a white stocking is infinitely more effective than a black one, and, certainly, white stockings and little, low black shoes form a chaussure that has no equal for feminine feet and legs, and that is far superior to one that has all the colors of the rainbow. Striped stockings on women are as much out of place as striped shoes would be on men.—Boston Traveler.

MONDAY MORNING AUGUST 2 1875

ANDREW JOHNSON

Andrew Johnson died at the residence of his daughter in Carter county Tennessee at 2 30 o'clock last Saturday morning

We condense from the Encyclopedia the following facts respecting his life down to the period when he became so prominent a figure in the politics of the times as to make his name familiar in every household. He was born at Raleigh North Carolina, Dec 29 1808 lost his father at four years old at 10 was apprenticed to a tailor in his native city with whom he served seven years He never went to school a day in his life, but learned to read by his own exertions and the casual assistance of a friend during his apprenticeship After this he worked at his trade 10 or 12 hours a day, and read two or three hours every night In the fall of 1826, he set out to seek his fortune in the West, and took up his residence at Greenville, Tennessee, which place continued to be his home the remainder of his life. At Greenville, while working as a journeyman tailor, he married, and his wife taught him to write, and instructed him in the elements of arithmetic In 1828 he was elected Alderman of the village, which was the first office he ever held It was the starting point of that career of official life which he was in the habit in after life of mentioning as "swinging round the circle" In 1840 he was presidential elector, in 1841, State senator, in 1843 was elected to congress, serving, by successive re elections, till 1853 He was a Southern Democrat in his affiliations at that time strongly supported the annexation of Texas and Mr Polk's Mexican war measures In 1853, and again in 1855, he was elected governor of Tennessee In 1857 he was elected to the United States senate, for the term ending March 3, 1862

Where the encyclopedia leaves him the country takes him up During his term the old contest between North and South over the slavery question took definite and tangible shape, and the conflict of opinions culminated in a conflict of arms When it became apparent that war was the only alternative to a dissolution of the Union, Mr Johnson came out boldly for the preservation of the Union at all hazards, and in doing so turned his back on nearly all his former party friends from the South and a large proportion of those from the North No speech ever delivered in the senate chamber thrilled the nation more than his reply to the remarks of Senator Lane, of Oregon, who had affected to be greatly shocked at hearing the leaders of the secession movement spoken of as traitors Mr Johnson said in reply he would "arrest them as traitors, try them as traitors, and if convicted hang them as traitors Such utterances, from a life long Democrat and a Southern man, produced an effect which, in that day of excitement and passion, could not have been produced by any amount of logical argument. From that moment Johnson was a central figure in the struggle for national existence It was that speech and his constant support of Mr Lincoln's policy, rather than exhibition of statesmanlike accomplishments, that made him Vice-President in the election of 1864

In April, 1865, he became President by the death of Mr Lincoln His former zeal in the cause of the Union, and the manner of Mr Lincoln's taking off led many to fear that Johnson would be inclined to pursue too harsh and relentless a course toward the ex rebels, the rebellion having just collapsed But the reverse proved true For eight or nine months the President did little or nothing, and at the end of that time came to an open rupture with the Republican party on some of the vital questions arising out of the war That bitter conflict between the President and Congress ensued which caused the impeachment of the latter by the House of Representatives, and a trial before the Senate, resulting in his acquittal by barely the requisite number of votes. From that time to the end of his term he was powerless, Congress having hedged him round with provisions to prevent his exercising the appointing power to place the civil service in the hands of the opposition

Last winter he was elected United States Senator from Tennessee, as an independent Democrat, against the nominee of the party caucus, and took part in the executive session, which followed immediately upon the adjournment of Congress in March

Andrew Johnson's place in history can not be determined yet The estimates of him are various, but it is certain they are far less unfriendly than when he left the presidential chair He was never accused of corruption in any mercenary sense, and much in his conduct, which at the time was set down for positive crime is looked upon in the steadier and juster light of this day as merely stubborn and unreasonable persistence in a course he thought was right But at all events he was a failure in the office of President The charity that would allow he was conscientious in his opposition to the reconstruction policy, will hardly be so amiable as to concede his fitness for the Presidency It had been better for his fame and for the country if he had met his end ten years earlier At least such will be the verdict of this generation

RENOWNED DEMOCRATIC STOCK

In his speech after the nomination of Lafayette Lane, Governor Grover took occasion to remark that the nominee was of "renowned Democratic stock The reference was to General Joseph Lane" If Lafayette's Democracy is of the same sort as that of his father, the less we have of it the better for the country It is not however, so much for the purpose of holding the son responsible for these heresies, so dangerous to the country and to republican institutions which distinguished General Lane during the days of his activity, as for the purpose of calling especial attention to Governor Grover's view of Democracy that we place in juxtaposition with the remarks of the governor at this time, some evidences of the sort of "Democratic stock" it is that Mr Lane springs from We quote a few sentences from Gen Lane's speech in the United States senate, March 20, 1861—just at the breaking out of the rebellion,—when he was representing, or unrepresenting Oregon in that body

Mr President in the remarks I made on the 19th of December last in reply to the Senator from Tennessee [Andrew Johnson] I took the ground that a State might rightfully secede from the Union

'They would at least refrain from ungenerous insinuations against the patriotism of Northern Democrats who like myself [illegible] the policy of coercion

The right of secession being fundamental and paramount all those territories and sites of forts have been acquired subject to that right and must abide by it

'Jefferson Davis a traitor' Treason applied to him! Him, the purest and best of patriots'

Let the seceded States alone . . . On the contrary acknowledge the independence of the Confederate States of America

These are the sentiments that constitute a man a 'renowned Democrat," according to Governor Grover and the remote and scarcely pertinent fact that the nominee of the present party for Congress sprung from the loins of the Senator who uttered such sentiments is fetched from far to do duty as a recommendation of the young man to Democratic favor If that is Democracy, as we remarked the less we have of it the better for the country

ANOTHER CORRECTION

In commenting on the letters of Mr U S District Attorney Mallory and Mr Postal Agent Underwood, published in the OREGONIAN last Saturday, the Evening Journal names the editor of this paper as one of the four persons before referred to by him, who could furnish evidence or a clue to evidence that would enable the officers to detect the parties guilty of the mail robbery The Journal is altogether in error We have given our readers all we know about the matter, and although we knew thus much before the case was mentioned in any of the papers, we had no information beyond that The name of Cox, as a possibly guilty party, we never heard whispered, till we saw it in the Journal We were subpœnaed to go before the grand jury, we presume on account of being referred to by the editor of the Journal in his testimony before that body We responded to the subpœna but were not called to testify Further more we may as well add, we have never had a word of conversation with the editor of the Journal on the subject and so far as we can recollect, never mentioned it to any person, except the officers, till after the publication of the accusation against Cox and Underwood in the Journal

We had hoped not to have to refer to this matter again, unless in general discussion, but the inaccuracies of Mr Mallory on the one hand and of the Journal on the other seem to render this explanation necessary

MORE PRESSED BRICK FROM THE POOL OF SILOAM'

Not many years ago it was given out that a certain law firm must be employed, if litigants would have a friend at court That is no longer supposed to be the case, but now certain claquers are 'begging for the concern, to borrow General Coffin's expressive phrase, in the way of urging that applications for pardons from the President, and for remission of fines and forfeitures by the Secretary of the Treasury, must go through certain hands here, because thereby it will receive the assistance of the member of the concern who has position at Washington If people really knew in what contempt the Secretary of the Treasury holds the individual whose 'perturbed state of mind" led him to go by an assumed name and have two wives for over seven long years, they would not be surprised at the delay and refusal which meet their petitions

In pursuance of their policy of seizing upon every event that in any way touches this northwest coast to prop up Senator Hipple his organs are advertising that Capt Hopkins appointment as U S marshal for Washington Territory was obtained 'through the exertions and influence of Hipple Nothing could be farther from the truth Capt Hopkins is better and more favorably known at Washington than Hipple and he has friends there beside The ring of bribers repeaters and dome copperers of Oregon have not now the access they used to have to the department of justice

At a term of the United States district court, recently held at Fort Smith, Arkansas, seven persons were convicted of murder, and sentenced to be hanged Their sentences were all pronounced on the same day, and they are all to be executed on the same day the 3d of September A writer who was present says they bore their sentence with uncommon hardihood, and one of them thanked the judge for the honor conferred upon him

A gentleman from Washington county who called at our office yesterday, says the Democracy of that county are glad they were not represented in the State convention The work of that body is considered a very good thing to have had no hand in

The Republican primaries last Saturday were as hard to find as the missing mail bag They were invisible to the naked eye But there are some people with credentials, never theless

INDEPENDENT STATE CONVENTION

At a meeting of the Independent State Central Committee held at Portland July 16 1875 it was resolved that a State Independent Convention be held at Salem on the 10th of August 1875 at 2 o'clock P M for the purpose of nominating a Candidate for Member of Congress

The basis of representation adopted is one delegate for every 100 votes cast at the last General Election for T F Campbell for Governor one additional for a fraction of 50 or more and one delegate at large for each county Under this apportionment the several counties are entitled to Delegates in the State Convention as follows

CITY.

GOLD PROSPECTS.—The Jacksonville Times of the 23d inst says: Dr J L Pilkington president of the Oregon Quartz Mining Co lately organized at Portland and Mr Jay G Kelly, superintendent of the same, arrived from Kerbyville Monday and favored us with a call From them we learn that the mill going up on their claims near Kerbyville will be completed in the course of two weeks and that everything looks favorable They brought with them some extremely rich specimens of porphyrite—one of the richest of silver ores—which were found in the Siskiyou mountains in Josephine county The gold which this ore contains makes it more valuable than pure silver of the same weight The doctor is very sanguine over the prospects, and expresses great confidence in the mineral resources of Jackson and Josephine and says he in end reporting fifty claims in these counties as worthy of attention He believes that his company have one of the richest mines on the coast These are certainly very flattering prospects, and coming from the source they do may be considered reliable All that is necessary to prove that this section is one of the richest to be found anywhere is capital and labor to develop it, which will return many fold in time

PASSENGERS COMING.—The steamer Oriflamme which sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday last brings the following passengers F S Aiken J K Gill L E Herman D L Walter D P Thompson G P Sears D Goodsell and wife G Sleet, J B Phillips J W Sleeper and wife Mrs L Williams Miss F G Allison and sister D T Harrington E H Johnson T Crichfield W H Thompson J Farmer and wife F Bogart R Hess, J O Martin B McCoy D M Wheaton H Bradford, E P Gilliland J H Adams and family Geo Smuller and daughter Mrs Frank Baby and daughter J H Cradlebaugh E W Carpenter Dan Holton A Steerzel, W Hardy A B Knox, L M Wade and wife, J C Weatherwed and wife Mrs S L Wade T DeClark, Mrs J Farmer Miss K Baughman R F Smith and wife J A Hudson and wife

A CASE OF 'CHEEK'—Lovers of music have certainly not forgotten Master J. W. McKenzie, who visited this city over two years ago in company with Charles Vivian This is the cruel manner in which an exchange does the young man up. Young McKenzie is turning up again He sang at Salt Lake on Saturday last being advertised as the 'most finished and effective singer in Italian that has ever yet appeared' Furthermore his extreme youth is another attraction' and again 'he has been called the Santley of America' Where in the name of all the brass foundries in existence will this 'youth's cheek lead him?'

THE SNAG BOAT.—On Tuesday the government snag boat arrived at Corvallis From the Gazette we learn the following relative to this craft and her performance lately For some time past they have been engaged in cleaning the river of snags in the vicinity of and above Peoria The last snag they pulled above this place was the one upon which the steamer Albany was wrecked Captain Smith tied up here last Tuesday night while working his way down the river having been ordered to Buena Vista, where he will commence operations, working down the river from thence

THE GAYLORDS IN TROUBLE.—From a Baker City exchange we learn that last Sunday evening, after the Gaylord Troupe had closed their performance, the city marshal appeared and arrested the entire company and introduced them to the recorder It seems that they had not applied for and obtained a license, as required by law, for the privilege of giving a pay exhibition within the sacred precincts of the city They didn't go on the stage Sunday night, as originally intended. Monday they fixed things up with the recorder for the sum of $16

TO SHOALWATER BAY.—As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns the steamer Gussie Telfair will leave Portland this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock, for Shoalwater Bay Fare for the round trip has been reduced to $10 The object of the excursion is to enable persons to visit the bay and witness the regatta, which will come off at Oysterville on the 4th inst Those who may be so fortunate as to go can confidently expect to have a splendid time All who can spare the time should not fail to join the excursion party.

WANT ENGINE AT BAKER CITY.—The Baker City Herald of a recent date says: "Work was commenced on the fire cistern Monday last. Mr. S. B. McCord, who recently made examination of a hand engine in Portland, informs us that arrangements will be made to purchase Propositions as to payment, etc have been forwarded, and the matter will soon be determined whether we are to have a fire engine or not. In the mean time let us post pone our fires until we have an engine

SOME RHUBARB.—A gentleman who resides at Spring Brook several miles southwest of this city, brought into our office on Saturday a monstrous stalk of rhubarb or pie plant which was raised on the farm of J H Baker in the same neighborhood. The specimen weighed over nine pounds and the leaf measured eighteen feet in circumference. As some one remarked, the stalk was worthy of a place in the Oregon department at the centennial next.

REPAIRING PARTY.—Saturday morning a party started from this city for the Sound country, for the purpose of repairing the telegraph line through the region of country over which destructive fires have recently passed The party will proceed at once to Tenalady and repair the line from that point to Tenino In the course of a few days the line will be in as good condition as before the fire

BRIEF NOTES.

County Court to-day

To-day the remains of the late Major John Walker will be buried at Vancouver with military honors

Quite a number of discharged soldiers whose terms of service expired are in the city dressed once again as freemen

To-day all the property and franchises belonging to the Northern Pacific railroad will be sold at auction in New York

The storerooms in Opitz's new brick building will be occupied by Jubitz & Saling barbers, and Neimyer & Utter merchant tailors.

Geo John McCraken's large three story brick store on Front street, is fast approaching completion When finished it will be one of the finest buildings in the city

The moulds for the revenue cutter to be constructed for the government at Albina have all been completed and a gang of ship carpenters will shortly commence getting out the frame, laying the keel etc

We are informed quite a number of invalids have arrived during the past week from Walla Walla and Kootenai for the benefit of their health Some left for San Francisco while others have gone to the seaside

Col. I. R. Moore gives information that a great many farms are being purchased in the interior by moneyed immigrants while those not so well situated are taking up government lands. This is a very encouraging statement from one who is thoroughly informed of all movements in farming lands

STABBING AFFRAY—MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Saturday morning about 1 o clock a serious stabbing affray occurred between Johnny Walker and Wm Taylor at a low and disreputable saloon on Second street known as the 'Ivy Green' The affray was the direct result of jealousy between the parties about a courtesan known as Tilly Foster who has been and at the time of the cutting was the mistress of Walker It is stated Taylor had told the woman that he intended to kill Walker and take her from him These threats were communicated to Walker by his mistress to put him on his guard against Taylor On the evening of the stabbing Taylor was standing at the bar in the Ivy Green saloon about to take a drink Walker entered the room and without uttering a word stepped up to Taylor drew a knife and made a murderous assault on him He made thrust after thrust in rapid succession and before bystanders could interfere inflicted serious and probably fatal injuries on Taylor Four distinct wounds were inflicted three of which might have been attended with fatal consequences One thrust took effect near the right nipple but the point of the knife fortunately came in contact with the sternum and was thus prevented from penetrating the cavity. The second thrust struck Taylor on the right side just below where the neck joins the body and on a line with the point of the shoulder Fortunately the knife struck the clavicle and did not penetrate to any depth Had the point struck an inch higher or lower it would have severed the subclavian artery which would have produced death in a few moments Walker evidently meant business and failing to kill Taylor at the first blow aimed at the jugular vein in hopes of severing that blood vessel Failing to inflict a death blow Walker struck again this time the knife taking effect in the right side The point again struck a rib and glancing downward penetrated the cavity inflicting a dangerous wound Again Walker wielded the murderous blade and striking Taylor's left arm cut a deep gash above the wrist Parties interfered and the would be murderer's hand was stayed One more blow and doubtless Taylor would have been instantly killed Just as the last thrust was made Taylor sank to the floor bleeding profusely at every wound while Walker turned and ran out at the back door During the sanguinary struggle one of Walker's legs was cut—doubtless by his own knife as it is claimed that Taylor was wholly unarmed, and consequently unprepared to resist the murderous assault made on him The character of the wounds are such as to leave no doubt in the mind but what Walker fully intended to kill his rival Either wound would have necessarily proved fatal—except the cut on the wounded man's wrist—if the knife had not come in contact with a bone Taylor soon after the stabbing was taken to a drug store by his friends and Dr W B Cardwell summoned The wounds were carefully examined, probed and dressed Subsequently Taylor was removed to his father's residence on Washington street where he is at present Drs Cardwell and Chapman are both in attendance on the wounded man When last heard from Taylor was resting comparatively easy, but it is quite difficult at present to determine the result of the injuries Walker was arrested shortly after the affray by officer Kelly and taken to the city jail Saturday forenoon the case was called for examination but on motion of defendant's counsel further investigation was continued until this morning at 10 o clock Walker claims to have acted only in self defense. He learned that Taylor had threatened to take his life and he thought it safe to kill him (Taylor) the first opportunity

BALL AND BAT.

There is talk of getting up a strong professional nine to represent Cincinnati in 1876 at which place the original Red Stockings under Harry Wright were organized

We learn that a number of base ball players from Albany will be in the city to-morrow Here will be a chance for our local clubs to entertain the visiting ball tossers on the East Portland grounds

On Wednesday morning the Arcadians will leave on the annual tour to the coast They will take a full nine and substitutes, and anticipate having a pretty good time during their absence of one week We shall give the names of the players to-morrow and our special reporter will accompany them on their trip

On Thursday evening the Pioneers will leave on the grand excursion to Astoria and the various points on the bay At Astoria they play the club of that place on Friday for a prize of $100 The nine will be selected from the following well known ball tossers Thompson J Raleigh Snow Matthews Drummond Wiley, Snyder (formerly of Yamhill county) Lownsdale Northrup Hopkins Sutherland and Giltner

The Chicago club for 1876 will consist of the following players Spaulding pitcher White catcher McVey first Barnes second Sutton third Peters short Glenn left Hines center, Anson right Devlin and Warren substitutes The first four are with the champion Bostons this season in the same positions Sutton and Anson have been with the Athletics and the others named above are returned A Boston dispatch to the St Louis Globe Democrat thus speaks of it The Boston nine agreeing it is much disheartened over the defection of Spalding, White Barnes and McVey who have pledged themselves to play in Chicago next year It is estimated here that Harry Wright will go to St Louis next year to fight against his old team for the championship of the West

PIGEON SHOOTING MATCH

One of the most exciting contests in marksmanship which probably has ever come off in the State took place on Saturday afternoon at the White House We refer to the long talked of pigeon shooting match For an hour before the time designated for the commencement of the contest the road leading to the White House was lined with vehicles of different kinds in which were seated a great number of those who keenly relish sporting matters Some idea can be formed of the crowd when the proprietor of the White House declared that there had not been such a jam of carriages and hacks at that place for more than a year One noteworthy feature of the contest was that there were present to witness the exciting sport, a number of respectable ladies Punctually at 2 o clock the contest began Mr C S Schenck acted by common consent as judge The birds used on the occasion were tame pigeons caught at the O S S Co's wharf They were placed in a cone cage which at a given signal was caused to spring suddenly apart and set the imprisoned pigeon at liberty There was one disadvantage about using the tame pigeon however When the trap sprung apart in numerous instances the bird instead of rising as a wild pigeon will invariably do would sit still or else making a short flight in the air alight on the ground a few yards away from the trap This always placed the person to shoot at a disadvantage for expecting as a matter of course that the bird would instantly fly upward when the trap sprung open he would elevate his gun and place himself in readiness to shoot If the bird failed to rise at the expected moment or flying up a few feet would alight again the person would have to reserve his fire until the pigeon was caused to raise either by having a one cast at it or a handkerchief waved The rise distance was fixed at 21 yards—that is the distance from the cage to the person shooting—30 yards for the shots and 100 yards designated as the bounds Each person was required to retrieve his own bird Shot guns were used by the contestants some of which were breech and others muzzle loaders Any kind of shot could be used, but a load under no circumstances was allowed to exceed in weight 1¼ ounces although the person was permitted to put in as large a charge of powder as he chose Twenty five cents was charged for each bird whether it was killed or made its escape each contestant paying for his own pigeons Shooting commenced at 2 o clock and ended about 5 After the sweepstakes, several side matches came off, the exact result of which we are unable to give, excepting one Below we give the

BAPTIST CHURCH ANNIVERSARY.

CONDITION OF THE CHURCH

At the close of the anniversary sermon at the Baptist Church yesterday a statement from the trustees was read, showing a deficit partly arising from lack of subscriptions of last year and partly from necessary expenses including lack of subscriptions for the current year of $839 00 J N Dolph stated that the trustees had received proposals from persons in the congregation to repair the church inside and out involving an expense of over $400 conditional upon raising this indebtedness and providing for the current year's salary Subscriptions were then received quietly and in a few moments W B Cald well announced that the entire amount was pledged $800 having been received The congregation then sang Praise God from whom all blessings flow After which the hand of fellowship was given to twenty one of the members received during the past month The total additions during the year amount to ninety five nearly one half the membership of the church

SOMNAMBULISTIC CAPERS.—A special from Spring Lake Michigan to the Chicago Times says Last night a strange case of somnambulism occurred here, the principal actor being a lad named Robbie son of David Patterson, a prominent lumberman At about 1 A M a neighbor hearing a noise, and fearing burglar arose and looking out the window saw what he supposed to be a man climbing the lightning rod of Patterson's residence He immediately gave the alarm when it was noticed that the object made no attempt to escape, and acted strangely Curiosity being aroused his movements were closely watched The boy climbed to the highest point of the Gothic tower and although the surface was very uneven explored the whole top of the building without a misstep After remaining up on the roof for nearly an hour he returned to the rod climbed down to the second story, and getting into the window of his own room went to bed where he was found in a sound sleep soon after Upon being awakened he remembered nothing of his strange trip, and was very much frightened when he was told where he had been To day he is much exhausted and quite sick

DEATH OF LADY FRANKLIN.

Lady Franklin died July 18th. The New York Tribune says:

A week or two ago Lady Franklin (being, as it was supposed, nigh unto death) sent to the women of this country the peculiarly womanish and pathetic message that they should pray for her. There is at last a chance that the bones of her husband may in a year or two be brought back to England, and the faithful soul, it seems, would hold death off yet a little while, that she may receive them. Every woman, of course, was touched by this request; the coarsest journals in copying it commented on it with grave respect. The white-haired old woman, who in the eyes of the whole world still shows her faithful devotion to the husband who left her in the flush of her youth and beauty, to return no more to her, has been, for this generation, one of the most pathetic figures in modern history. The facts of her story have been exceptionably picturesque and dramatic. There was the brave explorer gone down into eternal cold and silence—into the chambers where the snow and ice are born, that uninhabited country of awful night, and more awful splendors of light, whose mysteries are but little less terrible to the living world than those of Hades; and there was the poor wife, powerful only in her devotion, going from one country to another, asking help to find and bring him back from death. When the appeal of the woman was answered, and twenty expeditions one after another, at a cost of over six millions of dollars, were sent out by shrewd practical Governments upon this Quixotic errand, the heart of the world was touched. Nothing in the old crusades was more chivalric than this response to a wife's appeal; those money-making mercenary days need more than the old poet a great thought now and then to refresh them, and, as we told ourselves, we had it here. This woman's conjugal love was of the grand old heroic model; it took us back to the days of Cato and Lucretia. We even felt a little surprise that the story should have missed its way and happened in our own age, among bepaniered and fashionable women, and petty interminable scandal-gossip, and suits in divorce courts.

An English Cure for Drunkenness.—There is a prescription in use in England for the cure of drunkenness, by which thousands are said to have been assisted in recovering themselves. The receipt came into notoriety through the efforts of John Vine Hall, commander of the Great Eastern steamship. He had fallen into such habitual drunkenness that his most earnest efforts to reclaim himself proved unavailing. At length he sought the advice of an eminent physician, who gave him a prescription,—which he followed faithfully for seven months, and at the end of that time had lost all desire for liquor, although he had for many years been led captive,—which he afterward published, and by which so many drunkards have been assisted to reform, as follows: "Sulphate of iron, five grains; peppermint-water, eleven drachms; spirit of nutmeg, one drachm; twice a day." This preparation acts as a stimulant and tonic, and partially supplies the place of the accustomed liquor, and prevents that absolute physical and moral prostration that follows a sudden breaking from the use of stimulating drinks.—Scientific American.

Gold, Silver, and Silver Bullion—Something to Cut Out.—E. B. Elliott, of the Bureau of Statistics, has prepared a paper on the mutual relations, as to price, of gold, greenbacks, silver bullion, and silver coin. The following tabular statement shows his conclusions: In the statement the dollar of silver bullion and the dollar of silver coin are each assumed to be 25 grammes of silver of the fineness of 9-10—the same with regard to quality and fineness as that of the legal fractional currency of the United States—price June 5, 1875. The gold price of $100 in greenbacks is $85 50. The gold price of $100 in silver bullion is $88 01. The gold price of $100 in silver coin is from $92 to $95; consequently the greenback price of $100 in gold is $117. The silver bullion price of $100 in gold is $113 06. The silver coin price of $100 in gold is from $108 07 to $105 03. Also, the greenback price of $100 in silver bullion is $102 09. Greenback price of $100 in silver coin, from $107 06 to $111 01. Also, the silver bullion price of $100 in silver coin is from $104 05 to $108. The silver bullion price of $100 in greenbacks is $97 02.

The French Floods.—The detailed reports, which are received by mail, fully confirm the cable dispatches concerning the terrible floods in the south of France. The disaster occurred in one of the most fertile and thickly populated districts of that country. The Garonne is fed by four smaller streams. A drouth of great severity had visited those regions. The gentle rains that preceded the flood were hailed as the greatest blessings. But the rainfall continued day after day until the whole valley was inundated, when one of the tributaries of the Garonne overflowed its banks, and an immense body of water at once swept down that stream carrying desolation and destruction in its course. There was no time to warn the inhabitants who perished by the thousand. Over twenty towns and villages were more or less devastated—Toulouse, which stands seventh on the list of large towns in France, being the greatest sufferer.

Cure for Drunkenness.—At a festival recently, a gentleman said of the cure of the use of intoxicating drinks: "I overcame the appetite by a receipt given to me by old Dr. Hatfield, one of the good old physicians who do not have a percentage with a neighboring druggist. When I called on him he said: 'Now that you have the moral courage I'll tell you the tonic which I have used with effect among my friends for twenty years.' I expected, of course, some nasty medicine stuff; but no, he prescribed an orange every morning, a half-hour before breakfast. 'Take that, and you will want neither liquor nor medicine.' I have done so regularly, and find that liquor has become repulsive. The taste of the orange is in the saliva of the tongue, and it would be as well to mix water and oil, as rum with my taste."

The full report of the Democratic State Convention of Minnesota shows that the contest over the currency plank of the platform was a square one. Ignatius Donnelly was the chief spokesman of the inflationists, and he offered a substitute platform condemning contraction and calling for the issue of convertible greenbacks in place of the national bank notes. He said that he wanted his resolution passed in order to strengthen the hands of the Ohio and Indiana Democrats. The vote against him was 94 to 42.

Another requisition on American military talent has been made by the Khedive of Egypt, who has just appointed to the position of Lieutenant-Colonel in the engineer service of the Egypian army Colonel H. C. Derrick, of Halifax county, Va., who served with credit during the war in the engineer service of the Confederacy.

On the 11th of June there was one of the "most beautiful snow storms of the season" at Calumet, on Lake Superior. The thermometer fell from ninety degrees in the shade to forty degrees in less than half an hour. Refreshing!

A monster snake is loafing about Hall Springs, near Baltimore, fifteen feet long and two feet in circumference. It is proposed to capture him by fastening a strong chain and hook, baited with a live chicken, near his den.

In the local money market there is still a dull demand and a fair supply, with no tendency in rates on loans or discounts to soften. On the contrary, as is usual when the season for heavy shipments of breadstuffs approaches, there is a slight disposition in holders of capital to grow a little firmer in their requirements, but as yet this has not had any important bearing on the market. The movement of the wheat crop has not begun, nor can we expect any considerable activity in that direction until the arrival of some of the tonnage which is to carry away our surplus. In some parts of the State the harvest is fairly begun, and the ensuing week will be one of the busiest of all the year with the farmers, so that our local market will likely exhibit in a great measure the usual state of dullness.

Wheat Crops Abroad.

With but few exceptions the wheat crop in our State, as far as it has been harvested, promises yet to turn out fully as well as has been anticipated, though it is highly probable that that which was spring sown, and which is not yet ready to cut, will fall short of the expected yield, on account of the recent hot and dry weather which has wilted the stalk and shriveled the grain. The wheat crop in some parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, was partly frost killed last winter, and in other instances somewhat damaged by the grasshoppers in the spring, but otherwise is doubtless a fair crop. In Indiana, Illinois and Ohio the promise of a full yield was good up to the coming of the extraordinary heavy rainstorms reported by telegraph in those States during the past week. Taking everything into consideration, we shall not expect the Mississippi valley States to turn out near as great a surplus as they did last year. It is against all present indications to presume that they will.

From Europe there is nothing in latest mail advices to indicate that the crops will be any better than heretofore predicted, and the demand for our surplus will in all probability be as urgent as it has been for years. The crops in France, Germany, Austria, etc., if reports can be trusted, would seem not to come up to the total of last year. The telegraphic advices of a drought in Azov districts, which were first alluded to three weeks ago, without then attaching any importance to them, have now continued so long that it is reasonable to believe in rather a short crop in these districts and even in those supplying the port of Odessa. The last telegram from the Azov markets state that it is now too late for any rain to improve the crops. If it should presently become an established fact that the harvest in the south of Russia is really a deficient one it would have a certain permanent influence on the range of prices during the coming season. The Mediterranean has lately been drawing a large proportion of the wheat cargoes from southern Russia, as out of 143 wheat-laden vessels that passed the Dardanelles from the 9th to the 15th of June, only 27 was destined for the United Kingdom, 73 for Marseilles and 43 for other destinations. The last advices from the Dardinelles give the passing of 55 wheat-laden vessels, 29 being destined for Marseilles 18 for England, 2 for Genoa, 2 for Holland and 1 for Belgium.

In Germany at the latest mail advices the crop prospects remained favorable, with fine general weather.

In Holland the weather had been favorable for the cereal crops but was too dry for the pastures.

In Austro-Hungary the weather had been very hot, with frequent thunder storms. The wheat plant was suffering from the extreme heat, and was greatly in need of rain.

In Algeria the official report of the crops was generally favorable, although in portion of that colony, there had been several thunder storms, laying the growing grain.

From Ireland, in every part, there was good promise of an abundant harvest.

Rain continued to be complained of in France, retarding the harvest of the rye and hay crops. Inland French markets had been scantily supplied with wheat. The 28th ult., from Castlenauday, Castres and Carcassone the wheat crop is represented as lost, while heavy rains have prevailed in the south and southwest of France; the southeastern departments have suffered severely from drouth and complain of defective crops. From the north and centre, reports are now satisfactory, although the farmers were desiring the cessation of rainfall.

The official report on the condition of the crops in Russia, recently published at St. Petersburg by the minister of the interior, is very favorable. In the governments of Charkoff, Poltara, Tola and the provinces bordering on the Black sea, the wintersown cereals were in excellent condition. Accounts from Bemmbin were also satisfactory. In the governments of Poltara and Iekatinoslav the grain crops were at first represented unfavorably, but have since much improved under the influence of more favorable weather. Advices from the Don and the Volga were also equally favorable.

Advices from Odessa first-thirteenth June state that there had been great animation in the market for breadstuffs, especially wheat, with large sales.

Agricultural advices from the north of France, including Normandy, Soissons, Picardy, Bril Beance, and from the eastern and central provinces report a continued improvement in the condition of wheat.

Galatz advices of 22d June, 1875, report temperature scorching hot, with rain much wanted. There were complaints of the effect of the drought on the cereal crops, and it was feared that not half a crop would be realized. In the west of Moldavia and a portion of Wallachia the grain fields were favorably represented, but in Galatz, Ibrail and other districts, as well as in a part of Bessarabia, there was suffering from drought.

Advices from Pesth, Hungary, under date of June 19, 1875, report violent thunder storms, with thermometer 90 degrees F. in the shade. Complaints were being made of the appearance of "rust" in the Banat and Theiss districts, as well as in the neighborhood of Pesth.

Advices from Austria report that, with the exception of a few districts, the crops all over the country promise to be excellent in quality, and abundant in quantity, which was, as to quantity by no means the case in 1874.

In Switzerland, at the latest mail advices, the wheat crop had, in general, a fine appearance, although in some places the ears were slightly defective.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—Advices from San Francisco indicate a weakening in that market and ours is in sympathy, declining quotations being furnished to-day at $1 75 ₩ cental. Transactions are very rare in the local market, exporters fearing a decline and holders hoping for a still further advance.

FLOUR—The price current in our local market is doubtless rather below the proportionate rates at which wheat can be purchased, and shows no tendency to decline, but is firm at $6 ₩ bbl for standard extras, $5 50 for outside and country brands, and $5 for superfine.

OATS—But few lots are now reaching this market, and all are about taken to supply the local demand. Current quotations are 65@70c ₩ bushel, with chances for a decline of 2 or 3c for prime lots.

HAY—A full supply in the market, quotable at $10@11 ₩ ton for fair to best timothy, loose, and $11 baled.

POTATOES—The market is in fair supply at 75c@$1 ₩ bushel.

ONIONS—There are but few lots in the market, quotable at 2½c ₩ lb, nominally.

APPLES, DRIED—The demand is hardly so active, and receipts have somewhat fallen off. The out-going steamer to-day carried none. Quotations are nominal at 7½@8c ₩ lb.

BACON—There is an improved demand in the local market, and, without any advance in quotations, sales are freer at 11½@12c ₩ lb for sides, 11@12c for hams, and 8@9c for shoulders.

EGGS—There is an active demand for fresh laid, and a decline in the volume of receipts. The market is firm at 30c ₩ doz, though shippers not willing to pay over 27c.

LARD—Good Oregon made is worth 16c ₩ lb in kegs or tins, and is in brisk demand.

BUTTER—We quote fair to choice roll at 22@25 ₩ lb; extra print for table use, 30@35c; common solid, 18@20c.

CHICKENS—The market is in liberal supply; quotations for full grown $4 25@4 50 per dozen; spring, $2 50@2 75.

BEEF CATTLE—Some very fine arrivals have been noticed during the week, and the market is supplied with an excellent stock. Slaughterers' prices are $3 75@4 25 per cwt. net, or $1 75@2 50 on foot.

MUTTON SHEEP—The demand is light at $2@2 75 per head.

DRESSED HOGS—There is some inquiry for the local trade at 6½@6¾c ₩ lb.

HIDES AND FURS—Prices for hides are still down, on account of the many damaged lots reaching the market. Undamaged are quoted at 15c ₩ lb for dry beef hides 6c for green; culls, 8@10c; elk, 18@20c ₩ lb; deer, 18@25c ₩ lb, dried, and 50c@75c a piece, green; mink skins each, $1 54; otter, $1@5; beaver, 75c@$1.

WOOL—The receipts so far during the week have been much less than for the corresponding days of last week. Buyers have about gathered up all choice lots on the market which were offered at current rates, and, in the absence of encouraging advices from abroad, are doing but little. Quotations are nominally unchanged.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues.—Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, than can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

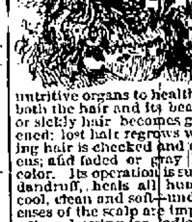
Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY & COLOR.



Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, by long and extensive use has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

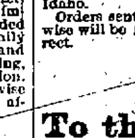
To the Unfortunate!

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!



DR. GIBBONS'

DISPENSARY,

623 Kearny St.,

Corner Commercial Street,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Rheumatism successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a wretched existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and distorted faces and their broken-down constitution, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies [illegible] cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, [illegible] who will make private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drug. [illegible] to those who are afflicted [illegible] are interested in the welfare [illegible] all cities, publishing their [illegible] the names of eminent physicians [illegible] other places. Be therefore careful [illegible] inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves, palpitation of the heart, [illegible] the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If those thus afflicted, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and [illegible] of treating this disease, which [illegible] failure to bring a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person [illegible] inferiority to him that he was [illegible] plaint by either of the San Francisco [illegible]

Married Men.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are laboring under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines [illegible] free from damage and curiosity, [illegible] by including Ten Dollars coin, in registered [illegible] through the office, or through Wells, Fargo & Co. [illegible] medicine will be forwarded [illegible] any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential. Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Cal.
